'A step towards professional banker'

Future Bankers Forum has conducted Mock Parliament on passing the bill on Bank Nationalisation on 27th Aug 2018, Monday. In the syllabus of the second year there is a topic of Bank Nationalisation. The forum decided to conduct the activity based learning on the arguments for and against the bank nationalisation. The guest lecture of Mrs. Gauri Kopardekar, Head of Politics Department was organised on the technical session of the parliament on the same day at 8.30am to 9am to know the process of the parliament. The auditorium was converted into the parliament under the guidance of Mrs.Kopardekar Madam.

The whole class was divided into two groups i.e. Ruling Party and opposition party group for the debate on arguments for and against bank nationalisation. The role of the then Prime Minister late Mrs. Indira Gandhi was played by Ms. Vandana Yadav. The role of the then Finance Minister Late. Mr. Morarajibhai Desai was played by Mr. Akash Shivsharan and the role of the then Parliament Speaker late Mr. Neelamsanjeev Reddy was played by Ms. Sanam Bhegade.

In the beginning of the parliament Prime Minister addressed the house on the proposal of bank nationalisation and appealed the members to accept the bank nationalisation in the interest of the nation. The senior member of the opposition party put forth the argument against the bank nationalisation and the debate was started amongst the two groups of the parliament. The debate was for about 45 minutes. The speaker of the parliament took voting on the bill of bank nationalisation after the debate was over and members with AYES were more in number and the bill was unanimously accepted for the Bank Nationalisation. The parliament was adjourned with the national anthem. The group of Opposition party was selected as best group by Dr.Pallavi Nikhare, member of Faculty of commerce.
