

PROFILE: Mathias Sager

Educator, Leadership & Strategy, IT and Learning & Development Advisor

Overview:

Mathias' transferable skills and experience are in education, business administration, IT and data management, advisory, risk management, psychology and learning & development to facilitate change from a cross-cultural perspective. He has led quality and complex programs successfully working with diverse teams and collaborating interdisciplinary with stakeholders to achieve innovative solutions. Mathias has worked as a teacher, a leadership trainer, as well as a senior manager responsible for global IT programs and client relationships, counseling, and virtual teams around the world. Also, he's a social entrepreneur and serving as a strategy and leadership advisor for various clients.

Work Experience

Global Learning & Development Consulting (Strategy & Systems)

- Definition of global learning management standards
- Management, production, and delivery of eLearning content
- Evaluation and implementation of IT systems

Visiting Researcher at University of Tokyo (Interfaculty Initiative in Information Studies)

- Founder of the Platform Cooperativism Japan (PCJ) Consortium Strategy Advisory and Project Management Services for International Technology Companies in Japan and India
- Strategy and concept
- Branding, Marketing, and P&R
- Project Management

Occasional Instructor Leadership & Organizational Development at J-Globalgroup

- Conceptualization of a Learning & Development model
- Event facilitator and Instructor

Senior Manager | Ernst & Young ShinNihon LLC

- Global lead and coordination of IT advisory, risk, assurance, and compliance projects for Japanese and International clients in the Financial Services sector
- Team leader and counselor in International IT Risk & Assurance practice
- Cross-service line and multidisciplinary team and business development

Work Experience (cont.):

Senior Manager, Advisory Services | EMEA Financial Services, Ernst & Young AG

- Advisory Services IT Risk and Assurance Insurance Services Team Leader Switzerland
- Learning champion for the national IT Advisory practice, including design and deployment of learning maps, including the coordination and delivery of training and recruitment
- Design, implementation and lead of project management office services

Trainer/Lecturer at the Akademie der Treuhandkammer (academy of the Institute of Certified Accountants and Tax Consultants)

- Conception and realization (train the trainer and lecturer) of the Modules "Audit" and "Professional Judgment: Process oriented audit"

Trainer for Leadership Communication at the Centre for Information and Communication of the Swiss Army (ZIKA)

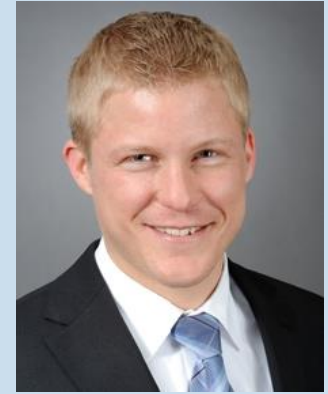

- Leadership communication and conflict management trainer for public services personnel
- Communications manager of the Center for Information and Communications of the Swiss Army

High School Teacher, Rapperswil

- Class tutor, all courses

Expertise

- Cross-cultural developmental psychology
- Psychology of Learning
- Global Talent Management (GTM)
- Leadership, Business Administration, and Project Management
- IT governance and management

Education:

- Diploma in Psychology (MSc program University of Liverpool), 2016 - 2018
- Executive MBA in ICT Management, University of Fribourg, 2010 - 2014
- Bachelor in Information Management, IFA, 2005 - 2007
- Postgraduate Certificate in Crisis Communication, 2006 - 2006
- Bachelor in Education Science, University of Neuchâtel, Higher Pedagogical Institute, Zofingen, 1995 - 1998

Language Fluency:

- Native German speaker;
- Professional business level English

Nationality:

- Switzerland